Although this was not a paid position, Mr. MacWilliam voluntarily stepped down as a scientific advisor to USANA precisely because of the concern that it could be perceived as a possible conflict of interest with respect to the publication of his popular Comparative Guides in 2006.

Lyle MacWilliam's Association with USANA - Ask USANA

Yes I copied over the headline! People who know me might not yet be aware of my recent transition from working alone to team building. Working with people requires a fair degree of communication skills that I might have neglected in my past enterprises, you see I was working better alone, I thought I was but not that much can be done alone.
