Uniform Rules For Demand Guarantees (URDG) refers to a set of guidelines adopted by the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) that sets forth generally agreed-upon rules governing securing payments and guarantees in contracts among global trading partners. URDG covers demand guarantees, or specific rights or countermeasures one party can impose on another party, and also applies to agreements requiring the decision of an arbitrator, as well as some contracts that involve slightly more complex agreements, such as situations dealing with the default of one of the parties. The most significant URDG update occurred in 2010, with so-called URDG 758, which attempts to clarify several common issues such as those involving contingencies, and provide guidance regarding handling of specific electronic documents and fund transfers.

Benjamin's Sale of Goods provides practitioners with high level comprehensive advice on case law and legislation regarding sale of goods internationally.

International Standard Banking Practice (ISBP) for the examination of documents under documentary credits, answers the most relevant questions practitioners have concerning how UCP 500, ICC's universally used rules on documentary credits, are to be integrated into day-to-day practice. The product of more than two years of work by the ICC Banking Commission, ISBP is based on the official Opinions issued by the Banking Commission in response to queries submitted by users of UCP 500. The text provides responses to the key questions relating to the examination of drafts, multimodal transport documents, insurance documents, certificates of origin and a range of other documents associates with letters of credit. This publication reflects international standard banking practice for all parties to a documentary credit. Figures show that 60%-70% of credits are rejected for discrepancies on first presentation. The new ISBP, by encouraging a uniformity of practice worldwide, is expected to cut these figures dramatically and, by doing so, to facilitate the flow of world trade.

These Standard Prequalification Documents serve as a guide for those wanting to prequalify to bid on large contracts for projects financed by the World Bank. Qualifying as a bidder is separate from the bid evaluation process. Before invitations to bid on large or especially complex works projects are issued, a process of prequalification is required to select competent bidders. This document helps bidders through the prequalification process. To simplify presentation by applicants for prequalification, standard forms have been prepared for the submission of relevant information. Guidance notes and examples are provided for the implementing agency making the evaluation. Annexes give information about prequalification that are likely to be of interest to potential bidders on World Bank projects. NOTE: This replaces Standard Prequalification Document: Procurement of Works (September 1999), Stock no. 14601 (ISBN 0-8213-4601-6).

Commercial letters of credit are the lifeblood of the international trade system and, for more than 70 years, the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) has established the rules governing documentary credits worldwide. Used by letter of credit practitioners (including bankers, traders, lawyers, transporters, academics and all who deal with letter of credit transactions worldwide), Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits (UCP) are the most successful private rules for trade ever developed. UCP 600 entered into force on July 1, 2007 and contains substantive changes to the existing rules that all international business professionals need to know. This version of UCP 600 also includes eUCP (ICC's supplement to the UCP governing presentation of documents in electronic or part-electronic form) and a glossary of international trading terms.

Abstrakte Bankgarantien sind im internationalen Wirtschaftsverkehr ein unverzichtbares Zahlungssicherungsmittel für komplexe Bauvorhaben und andere Grossprojekte. Sie versprechen im Bedarfsfall sofortige Liquidität und lassen sich auf erstes Anfordern abrufen, ohne dass Einwände aus dem Grund-, oder Deckungsgeschäft die Auszahlung verhindern können. Diese unmittelbare Verwertungsmöglichkeit birgt jedoch zwangsweise ein erhöhtes Risiko einer ungerechtfertigten oder missbrauchlichen Abrufung. Das vorliegende Werk untersucht rechtsvergleichend den Missbrauch von Bankgarantien (sog. demand guarantee/independent guarantee/standby letter of credit) im südafrikanischen, englischen sowie deutschen Recht. Unter Auswertung aktueller Gerichtsentscheidungen sowie des Schrifttums werden die praxisrelevanten Missbrauchsfallgruppen analysiert und Wege zur Risikominimierung bzw. -vermeidung aufgezeigt. Das Werk ist gleichermaßen für die Praxis und Wissenschaft geeignet und leistet einen wichtigen Beitrag zur Auflosung des Spannungsfeldes von Rechtssicherheit und materieller Gerechtigkeit im internationalen Wirtschaftsverkehr.
