Hate:A Love Story By: Laurel Curtis. September 1996 LOOKING DOWN AT MY BOOKS strewn across the crowded hallway floor, I cursed the ban on backpacks during school hours for the millionth time that year. "Ugh. You stood no chance against that forty-five pound stack of books, gangly arms. It's not your fault," I muttered to myself as I ...

Love being the absolute awesomeness of the story and the hate because it is so awesome that I never wanted it to end. There are some issues in this book that not many authors are courageous enough to write about, but Laurel has. Abortion, depression, suicide, 9/11, terrorism, cancer, and a never ending decade long love for a soul mate.

Well, I wouldn't say annoying... she's really just an absolute mess. I could write a 2,000 word essay on Laurel Lance and why she failed to engage audiences, but suffice it to say that * (1) they did a terrible job creating the character (the b...

Is Laurel Lance (Katie Cassidy) the most annoying ...

Laurel has had one of the more realistic hero journey's on the show, and that's one of the reasons I love about her. She has been beat up and beat down but she still gets up and fights on and maintains the light inside of her, yes she had her set back in S2, but god who wouldn't after everything she has been through.
