Manna Machine

The Manna Machine is a 1978 book by George Sassoon and Rodney Dale, based upon a translation of the section of the Zohar called The Ancient of Days that concludes that a machine had created algae as food for human beings in biblical times.

The Manna Machine - Wikipedia

For a practical manna machine we need to produce as much food as possible in as small a volume as possible. It follows that such a machine must grow a simple life-form, the simpler the better. The life-form George Sassoon and Rodney Dale based their design on is a single celled plant known as chlorella.
